PROFILE

Hands-on full stack AI engineer and CTO with 13+ years of experience building production web and mobile products. Architected and coded AI and fintech platforms from initial design through deployment and scale. Combines deep product ownership with current implementation experience across TypeScript, React, Node.js, data systems, and applied AI.

EXPERIENCE

Co-Founder and CTO

Nomiki | Sep 2025 to Present

- Architected, coded, and deployed the complete AI fashion-imagery platform across Next.js, React, GraphQL, PostgreSQL, Prisma, Docker, and Railway.
- Built a deterministic multi-model pipeline for manipulating garment images and generating editorials, packshots, colorways, and video content.
- Delivered the official AI image-generation platform used by Castro-Hoodies Group, Israel's second-largest fashion group.

Co-Founder and CTO

Sequence | Jan 2023 to Sep 2025

- Architected and coded a financial automation platform for connected accounts, visual cash-flow management, and rules-based money movement.
- Led a 10-person engineering, design, and DevOps team while writing a substantial share of the production code.
- Scaled the product to 3,000 users and $2M ARR after raising $15M from Aleph and Emerge VC.

Co-Founder and CTO

Lance | Feb 2019 to Jan 2023

- Built a banking product for freelancers on Unit's embedded-finance API, reaching 6,000 customers and raising $3M.
- Wrote most of the code within a three-person team across React Native and a Node.js, GraphQL, PostgreSQL, and Prisma backend.

Independent Advisor and Full Stack Developer

Riskified, Taboola, and JFrog | Jan 2017 to May 2020

- Advised marketing and R&D teams on React and Redux adoption and helped integrate the frontend stack into production applications.
